

Do not allow the use of cellular phones on aircraft. Air travel is burdensome enough since 911 without having to listen to others talking during the entire trip. It is unfortunate that there is little concern for fellow passengers now for the short time phones are allowed. The disturbance would be nerve-wracking.